

4-5 February 2022

Course Committee

Dr Varun Mehra
Haematologist

Prof Tony Pagliuca
Haematologist

Dr Mansour Ceesay
Haematologist

Dr Silke Schelenz
Microbiologist

Dr Jimstan Perisleris
Respiratory Physician

Who should attend

Healthcare professionals and clinical scientists interested in the management of Infections in Immunocompromised Hosts.

Benefits

In addition to live expert interaction, access to recorded education materials will be provided to view at your own convenience. A formal CPD Certificate (10 CPDs) will be awarded at end of the course.

Financial support for this educational event was provided by Pfizer Limited as an Independent Medical Educational Grant. Pfizer have had no input or involvement in the design, development and content creation of any resources produced.

KING'S HEALTH PARTNERS PRECEPTORSHIP

Infections of the Immunocompromised

A unique and innovative King's Health Partners Preceptorship Course

Registration OPEN for our immersive HYBRID learning event

(Fully virtually or in person on Day 1 and virtually for Day 2)

Course Objectives

- Explore benefit of a multi-disciplinary team approach for major opportunistic serious Infections in Immunocompromised Host.
- Share King's Health Partners (Centre of Excellence) experience with Healthcare Professionals (HCPs), network and exchange expertise.
- Share best practices in the Laboratory functioning of an Infection Sciences lab and mycology service in NHS.
- Discuss current understanding of emerging pathogens in immunocompromised hosts- academic/clinical learnings.
- Expose HCPs in new risk factors with advent of novel biologics and changing therapeutic landscape of fungal Infections with evolving resistance.
- Update HCPs on key developments in understanding of microbial molecular pathophysiology, novel diagnostics and future directions.

Registration

Virtual access on Day 1-2: Cost: £110.00 per ticket (discount available for trainees); To book a place please visit:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/173358177977>

Hybrid access (1st day in person and 2nd day virtually): Cost £110.00 per ticket (50% refundable on attendance). Limited number of tickets available.

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/173367184917>